

BUDZYN

IP LAW

Ludomir A. Budzyn

Member

Member Ludomir “Lou” Budzyn handles all aspects of intellectual property and has a versatile background developed from positions held as a partner at Hoffmann & Baron and as an associate at both Stroock & Stroock & Lavan and Casella & Hespos, a patent researcher at Becton Dickinson & Company, and an application engineer in thermodynamic design at IMO Industries. Lou has given presentations on numerous intellectual property law topics and is a regular lecturer at the Joint Patent Practice Seminar held annually in New York City. Fields of technology include mechanical and electromechanical arts.

Practice Expertise

- Domestic and foreign patent and trademark prosecution, opinion work, related oppositions and litigation.

Bar Admissions

- State of New Jersey
- Federal Courts of New Jersey
- State of New York
- Registered to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office

Education

- J.D., Seton Hall University School of Law, 1995
- B.S., Mechanical Engineering, Newark College of Engineering, New Jersey Institute of Technology, 1990

Memberships

- New York Intellectual Property Law Association
- American Intellectual Property Law Association